HB 453

H.B. 453 General Description

HB 453 requires certain municipalities, counties, or airport authorities that own airports in another municipality or county to maintain an advisory board.

Also provides for memberships on the advisory board; selection of a chair; transition and terms of board members; and allows for extraterritorial airport advisory boards.

Salt Lake City owns and operates the following airports:

- Salt Lake City International Airport
- South Valley Regional Airport, West Jordan
- Tooele Valley Airport, Erda

H.B. 453 Provisions

H.B. 453 Sets Forth the Following Provisions:

- Creation of an 11-member Airport Advisory Board
- Appointment one individual from each municipality or county in which an extraterritorial airport is located
- Sets forth qualifications and terms for Advisory Board members
- Sets forth procedures to fill vacancies on the Advisory Board
- Allows for the creation of an extraterritorial Airport Advisory Board—to represent interests of that airport—to meet quarterly
- Advises study and analysis of the highest and best use for operation of each airport as required by federal law
- Determine whether or not a municipality or county where an extraterritorial airport is located is entitled to receive airport-related tax disbursements
